NLAA ANNOUNCEMENT

NLAA MEMBER APPOINTED TO THE BUILDINGS ACCESSIBILITY ADVISORY BOARD (BAAB)

September 12, 2018

NLAA Council is pleased to announce the appointment of NLAA Member, Rob Menchenton, to the Buildings Accessibility Advisory Board for a term of two (2) years effective from August 14, 2018 by the Minister of Service NL, Sherry Gambin-Walsh, MHA.

The members of BAAB are appointed pursuant to section 18 of the Buildings Accessibility Act (the Act).

The duties of the board, pursuant to section 19 of the Act, are to report to and advise the Minister of Service NL on the application of the Act and Buildings Accessibility Regulations (the Regulations), and on other matters in relation to the Act and Regulations that may be assigned to BAAB by the Minister.

The first priority of the BAAB is to be engaged in the review of the Act itself, which was announced by the Minister on October 23, 2017.

Council congratulated Mr. Menchenton on accepting the appointment, and wished him every success in his term with the BAAB at a Council meeting held on September 11th.
